

THAW JURY DISAGREED

After Record Session

THEIR VOTE STOOD:

7 for Murder in First Degree; 5 for Acquittal

Breaking All the Records for Juries.

NEW YORK, APRIL 12.—THE THAW JURY DISAGREED AT 4:31 P. M. THEY WERE THEN DISCHARGED BY JUSTICE FITZGERALD.

IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE DISAGREEMENT WAS ANNOUNCED EVELYN NESBIT THAW WENT TO THE PRISON'S DEN TO SEE HER HUSBAND. COURT IS ADJOURNED UNTIL APRIL 29. SHORTLY AFTER THE JURY HAD BEEN DISCHARGED IT WAS RUMORED THAT THE FINAL VOTE SHOWED A DIVISION OF 7 FOR MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE AND FIVE FOR ACQUITTAL.

NEW YORK, April 12.—Apparently as far away from a verdict as when they retired at 5:17 o'clock last Wednesday afternoon, the Thaw jury continued today the task of trying to reach some sort of agreement. No word whatever had come from the jury room up to 12:30, when Justice Fitzgerald ordered a luncheon recess until 1 p. m. At this hour a noonday repast was also ordered for the jurors and was served to them in their consultation chamber.

The Thaw jury is breaking all records by its determination to agree upon one of the four verdicts outlined by Justice Fitzgerald in his charge to the jury—murder in the first degree, murder in the second degree, manslaughter in the first degree, or acquittal on the ground of insanity.

CONSCIENTIOUS WORK.
The most remarkable feature of the jury's long consideration of the case is the fact that not once during the forty-three hours up to noon today has the jury suggested it could not agree and thus ask for a discharge from further service. The twelve men who sat through the many weeks of the trial apparently feel that their consciences require them to do their utmost in making some definite disposition of the case.

THAW CHEERFUL.
Mrs. William Thaw and her sons, Edward and Joseph, were at the courthouse early today and as soon as permitted, visited the defendant. They found him cheerful as usual, absolutely refusing to feel depressed over the outlook. A disagreement of the jury, however, would mean another long period of confinement for him.

On the prisoner's mother and wife the anxiety and strain of the long wait for a verdict is proving a greater hardship than the man on whose life is supposed to be hanging in the balance. The long delay is also proving very hard on counsel connected with the case, court officers and others whose business calls them to the trial.

BIG CROWDS.
Great crowds gathered about the Criminal Courts building and fully 500 people were blocking the streets at 12 o'clock. They came not only in hope of securing quick news of a verdict, but to catch a glimpse of

HARRY THAW says:
"I am innocent under the written law of the state."

NEW YORK, April 12.—Harry Thaw this morning through his attorneys, gave out the following statement:

"I wish the jury and everyone else to understand that no one more despises a person who carries a concealed weapon more than I. That only after my life was in jeopardy as I was informed by persons, and as was communicated to me by professional detectives, did I protect myself. Then I employed the Pinkertons, and they could never prove these attempts, so I could invoke the protection of the law or disprove them, so I could safely continue defenseless.

"Then, doubting my judgment, I consulted an ex-chief of police, a man respected in this community, and he advised that my duty was to protect myself.

"In this trial I wish my case solely and simply based upon the law of the State and upon the evidence which had convinced not only me as I reviewed all this evidence, but also the District Attorney that I am innocent under the written law of the State."

Grand Jury Members Probing Further Into Alleged Telephone Bribery Scandal—
Other Business.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—All the evidence in the telephone tangle will undoubtedly be in before the grand jury adjourns tomorrow afternoon, and five to eight indictments will probably be returned and filed with Judge Coffey, early in the evening. It is understood that certain of these indictments are to be returned against parties heretofore mentioned but little directly in connection with the graft scandal. It is almost assured that at least one more true bill will be returned against Louis Glass of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company, who is

MURDERER MAY NOT BE SANE

LOS ANGELES, April 12.—Local authorities are in doubt as to whether George W. Bunker, the convicted murderer of John Schneider of Correll, Georgia, who surrendered himself here yesterday, is entirely mentally responsible. There is no question of the correctness of the story related by Bunker, but he appears not altogether rational upon certain subjects. He has a delusion that his brother, who helped him kill Schroeder, is here in jail with him and is being released as a result of a fight with detectives.

Sheriff Hammel has notified the Georgia authorities of Bunker's arrest, but has had no response from them. He will, however, hold the prisoner until notice is received.

FLAMES THREATEN PLANT.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—A watchman, hired by the San Francisco Gas and Electric Company, at the company's plant at Decison and Townsend avenue against fire, left the small shop fitted up for him on the site, and upon returning from his rounds found the house in a blaze early this morning. He turned in an alarm and the fire department came upon the scene before the flames had time to spread to the adjoining buildings of the plant.

He had left a pot of coffee boiling on a stove when he left and it appears there was a defective chimney, which resulted in heating the wood to where it ignited. The damage was slight. Serious results would have followed a spreading of the flames in the direction of the gas tanks.

CAR SYSTEM BLOCKADED.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—A trolley blockade almost as bad as that of Saturday, was effected on Market street, within half a block of the ferry, again this morning and for nearly two hours the entire system, with the exception of the Folsom and the Mission streets lines, was completely tied up. A large truck driven by E. S. Downing attempted to cross the tracks, where some repairs were being made. The wagon being heavily laden with merchandise. The rear right wheel gave way, dropping the vehicle over the four tracks, shutting off both the ferry bound and inbound traffic. Several hundred persons missed fer-

World.

NEW YORK, April 12.—The Herald today says that negotiations are under way for the formation of a world-wide rubber trust by the consolidation of the United States Rubber Company and the International Rubber Company, which controls vast sources of the raw product in Mexico and the Congo.

Committees have been appointed from each company to consider the terms and obtain data upon which the earning powers and resources of the companies are estimated. The statement is made that if the consolidation is effected a great parent company will be formed to issue securities not less in amount than $150,000,000.

In the company will be represented such interests as King Leopold of Belgium, John D. Rockefeller Jr., Thomas F. Ryan, the Guggenheim syndicate, the First National bank, Senator Aldrich, A. N. Brady and Colonel Samuel P. Colt.

SILK MERGER.

NEW YORK, Pa., April 12.—A silk merger with a capital of $22,500,000 was announced here today. The merger thus far includes the York and Monarch Mills in this city, and Carlisle, Fleetwood and Reynolds mill, this state. The purchaser is the American Silk Manufacturing company of New York. Plans are under way for the merging of a total of thirty mills, principally in Pennsylvania.

IS VERIFIED.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 12.—Announcement was made here today of the merger of the United States Rubber company and the Rubber Goods Manufacturing company.

GAS COMPANY'S RATES TO BE AGAIN REDUCED

It Voluntarily Drops Fifteen Cents in the Price of Gas and Electricity Rates
Will Be Lowered.

It has been the fixed policy of the Oakland Gas Light and Heat Company to voluntarily reduce its rates to consumers at intervals. Usually these intervals have been two or three years apart. On May 1st of last year, the company reduced the rates of gas to consumers to $1.15 per thousand feet for illuminating purposes and to 99 cents for consumption as fuel. Since then the growth of population has been so extraordinary and the increase in gas consumption so great that the company feels warranted in making another reduction, in accordance with its policy, much earlier than has heretofore been customary for it to do so. Manager Leach announces that on June 1st a new schedule of rates for gas and electric light will go into effect. Gas for illumination will be delivered to consumers for $1 per thousand feet and for fuel purposes at the same rate as at present, namely, 99 cents per thousand feet. As the consumption of gas for fuel and illumination is about the same, the new rates will establish virtually an average rate of 95 cents. The proposed reduction will effect

Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley, Piedmont and Fruitvale.

A 10 per cent reduction is also to be made at the same time in the base rates of electric lights, with liberal schedule of discounts to large consumers.

The sudden growth of population last year naturally made extraordinary demands upon the company's plant and unavoidably caused occasional troubles which were not, however, of a general character.

The company is also following its usual policy of keeping the construction work of its plant ahead of the growth of population. Last October a new gas generating machine was shipped. Contracts have been let for another generator, a compression plant to pump gas into the outside districts and for a new purification plant and gas holder. These additions and the extensions of mains will cost over $1,000,000. About $400,000 is to be spent also at once in electric extensions and generators. The company is, therefore, keeping up its equipment well ahead of the times and in close touch with the wants of the community.

State Challenges Sheriff and Coroner.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—At the resumption of the Ruef trial this morning the ten prohibitionary jurors thus far chosen are excused from attendance until Monday, upon the suggestion of Special Prosecutor Johnson, who stated that the motion for re-disqualification of the Sheriff and Coroner, the ordering by the court of the special venire and the appointment of an elisor who summoned it, would necessarily be followed by more or less lengthy arguments which it is not necessary for the jurors to hear.

ASKS FOR VENIRE.

"The people," said Johnson, "now move the court to issue a special venire for such number of jurors as the court may deem essential for the purpose of completing the panel in this case. In this connection the people challenge the Sheriff and Coroner of the city and county of San Francisco on the ground that each of them is disqualified by bias, prejudice and personal interest, and would not act fairly or impartially in this proceeding. We ask further for the appointment of an elisor to execute such orders as the court may make."

ONE AT A TIME.

Replying to this, Attorney Ach for the defense requested that Johnson separate his motions. "For," he said, "there will be no necessity of disqualification and appointment unless the special venire is ordered. Let the gentlemen address himself first to the question for a special venire. Should the court deny that motion, the summoning of jurors from the regular list would be a mere ministerial act and anybody could perform it."

"The last part of Mr. Ach's statement," replied Johnson, "is untrue. The Sheriff, having been already disqualified in this cause, the summoning by him of any jurors would invalidate their services and render the whole panel liable to challenge."

"The motions I have made are dependent each upon the other. By securing them jointly much time can be saved."

Judge Dunne agreed with Mr. Johnson and Ach accepted to the rule.

Johnson then filed a half-dozen or more affidavits in support of his motions and began the reading of them.

HENEY'S AFFIDAVIT.

The first affidavit read by Mr. Johnson was that of Assistant District Attorney Francis J. Heney, in which he recites the turbulent history of the political, judicial, social and other events leading up to the appointment of William J. Biggy as elisor. Heney's affidavit differed not greatly from his earlier statement in this connection. It supported Johnson's motion, being in the nature of proof of the alleged unfitness of Sheriff O'Neil and Coroner Walsh to perform their functions with regard to the case.

THAW JURY BREAKS ALL RECORDS IN NEW YORK CRIMINAL HISTORY JUDGE SENDS HARRY THAW BACK TO JAIL

Evelyn Thaw or some other member of the Thaw family. When Mrs. Thaw left the building to go to luncheon she was again all but mobbed and several scores of policemen had to make way for her through the court doors.

NEW YORK, April 12.—After being out for thirty-eight hours, the twelve men who have in their hands the fate of Harry K. Thaw, went to breakfast shortly after 7 o'clock this morning. Throughout the night their discussions were continued but no agreement was reached. In spite of their long confinement, the jurors showed little evidence of the strain they have been under. All of them seemed to be in good spirits when they returned to the court building at 8 o'clock and re-entered the jury room to resume their deliberations. Juror Pink, who was ill juror after being out forty-seven hours and eight minutes, reported to Justice Fitzgerald at 4:31 p. m. Foreman Smith announced that the jurors had found it impossible to reach an agreement.

because there was no attempt to coerce the jury.

It was persistently reported this morning that the members of the jury are divided nine to three. Some said nine were for conviction for manslaughter and three for acquittal, while others declare three were for conviction and nine for acquittal on the ground of insanity.

This report was lent a certain degree of color by the statements of persons who had watched the jury room windows early this morning. They said the jury was arranged for discussion in three groups, with one man in the center of each group, seemingly disagreeing with the others.

Judge Fitzgerald, it developed today, had a long conference last Tuesday night with Messrs. McClure and Olney, who were members of the committee which recommended the Thaw. It was said the judge probably wanted to consult with the commissioners as to their views as to whether they would consider it wise to release Thaw in event of a verdict of acquittal on the ground of insanity.

Justice Fitzgerald said he felt he had kept the jury as long as he should and with the consent of the public prosecutor and counsel for the defendant he would discharge them from any further consideration of the case.

THAW FAMILY. The Thaw family arrived shortly before the court doors were opened, and entered the consultation room. Hundreds of people on the street crowded around the doors in an attempt to get a close view of the family.

By the time the courtroom was opened, the crowd surrounding the building had increased in numbers and a large force of police was kept busy keeping the curious from approaching the doors.

At 11 o'clock the jurors apparently had not reached the point where they felt they were justified in asking for a discharge. They evidently feel that after such a protracted trial and so much expense and inconvenience to all concerned, it is their duty to put forth every endeavor to reach an agreement.

WILL WAIT THEIR REQUEST. Justice Fitzgerald, on his part, determined to take no step looking to a dismissal of the men until they made formal announcement of their disagreement and requested to be released.

At 12:30 p. m. the jury sent word that they desired to have their lunch ordered. It will be served from a nearby restaurant in the jury room. This indicated that the jury is no nearer a verdict than at any time since their deliberation began.

Justice Fitzgerald has not yet indicated how much longer he will hold them. At 12:30 Justice Fitzgerald ordered a recess until 2 p. m.

FALLS UNDER CAR AND SUSTAINS INJURIES. Joe Cantrone, a 18-year-old blacksmith's helper of San Leandro, fell under a car on Twelfth street, near Franklin, last evening and nearly lost his right hand. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where Dr. Morgan was summoned to dress the wounds. The bones of the right wrist were fractured and the forearm was broken. Cantrone also sustained painful bruises about the head.

CHARGES HER HUSBAND WITH STRIKING HER. Thomas Corbett, who lives with his wife, Mrs. Jennie Corbett, at 1234 Myrtle street, has been arrested at his spouse's instance, charged with battery. Corbett went home in an ugly mood and his wife says he struck her.

Mrs. Corbett made complaint to the police as soon as she was able to get out, and Corbett will be called on to explain tomorrow morning.

ALAMEDA CANDIDATE TO CONTEST ELECTION. ALAMEDA, April 12.—G. H. Ward, who was defeated for the council by one vote, according to the unofficial returns, which are now in the City Clerk's office, will have a recount if the canvass of the City Council on Monday night shows no change in the result. Ward was defeated for councilman of the Sixth ward by Robert Geo by a vote of 1202 to 1201. His friends are desirous of a recount, and resorted to a tally sheet showing no change, and Ward has decided to take the matter into the courts.

The official canvass of the tally sheets will be made at the meeting Monday night, but the ballots of the city provides that an elector can mark his ballot with pencil, but the State laws are in contradiction to this. Ballot marked with pencil were thrown in the recent count and may effect a change in the result if the Supreme Court should allow them to be counted.

RAILWAY BLOCKADE IS NOW CLEARED AWAY. After twenty-two days of blockades, during which no central overland trains ran by way of Benicia to Sacramento and no southern trains ran by way of San Luis Obispo to Los Angeles, the Southern Pacific has reopened both those routes to regular service. The Sacramento-Davisville stretch was finally cleared and reopened yesterday upon the completion of six miles of new track and roadbed to replace that washed away by the recent waters of the Sacramento. The Coast route resumed service today, tunnel 6, just northward of San Luis Obispo, having been carved out and repaired after the landslide.

The unprecedented tie-up on these two main lines of travel made it necessary for central and northern trains to go around by way of Stockton and all trains between San Francisco and Los Angeles have had to operate by way of Bakersfield and the San Joaquin valley route.

Would this double blockade have caused the delay? It is a question that will be asked by many.

Wild-Eyed Man Says That the Government Is "After Him."

"I want the Government to stop getting after me, otherwise I will have to kill myself this afternoon," said a roughly dressed, wild-eyed man to City Clerk Thompson this morning when the latter came to the counter to see what the man wanted. Continuing, he said:

"The Government has made me lose every job I get; I have no money, and therefore I am in a bad way, and I've got to stop. Will you help me?"

Mr. Thompson replied that he would take the matter up at once and see that the man was not troubled further.

Stopping to a phone he called police headquarters and his call was responded to by Sergeant Curtis, to whom Thompson explained the man's desires.

"Come with me, old man, I'll fix it for you," said Curtis, and the man was taken to quarters in the City Prison, where he is being detained on suspicion of insanity.

He is booked under the name of Steve Yaroc, a miner, and in his purse was found $4.52. The police are investigating the case.

GOLDFIELD IS LAW-ABIDING

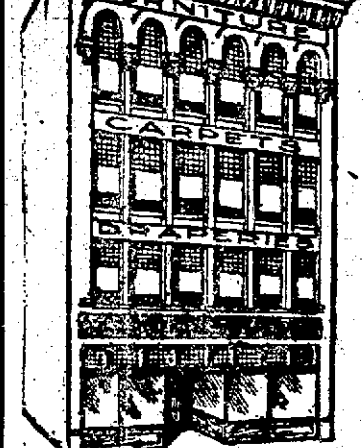

Efforts Being Made to Settle Trouble In Opposition to Industrial Workers.

GOLDFIELD, Nev., April 12.—The labor situation remains unchanged. For two days no move has been made toward another joint conference of the contending forces. The mine owners have the situation in hand better now than at any time during the trouble and are busy lining up the few remaining business houses who are employing industrial workers with the local business men.

Workers of the World with the business men and Mine Owners Association. All the principal towns of Nevada are co-operating with the local business men's commission and are refusing to sell goods to merchants and restaurants who have persisted in employing industrial workers. They are few in number. The object in forcing all into line is to put them on the same footing when the mines are reopened so there may be no boycotts caused in connection with the anti-industrial Workers of the World movement. Every line of business and every industry in Goldfield will then have an embargo on the I. W. W.

It has been charged that the leaders of the miners are secretly co-operating with certain brokers to play the market up and down and this matter is being investigated by the miners. There is some talk of starting the mines with miners who will sign an agreement with the I. W. W. providing 500 signers are obtained. This is movement of the part of the conservative miners. The town is quiet and law-abiding, and there is no indication on the streets of the labor trouble.

SWEEPING DENIALS ABOUT BRIBES BY MR. CALHOUN

Neither the United Railroads or Holding Company Ever Gave a Cent for Bribes.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—From the tenor of the statement made by President Calhoun of the United Railroads he intends to make a strong fight against any charges against bribery which may be brought against the United Railroads in connection with any franchises they may have received. In his statement Mr. Calhoun professes to speak for the United Railroads Investment Company of New Jersey, the holding company for the city railroad owning.

Mr. Calhoun said: "I wish to go on record before the people of San Francisco as stating that not one of the officials or legal counsel of the United Railroads of San Francisco or the United Railroads Investment Company of New Jersey ever paid, authorized to be paid, approved of paying or knew that one dollar was paid to secure the passage of the trolley franchise ordinance by the Supervisors, and if I had known that one dollar was paid for the purpose of securing this franchise I would not have accepted it."

SWEEPING DENIAL. Calhoun refused to discuss the graft situation or the charges made against the United Railroads in any way except to make the statement given. In his previous denial of the bribery charges issued from New Jersey he did not mention the United Railroads Investment Company of New Jersey, which is the stockholding corporation of the local company, and he did not deny specifically that counsel for either of the corporations might have paid of the corporation for the trolley franchise. The fact that at this time he declares that no official or attorney for either of the corporations even knew that a dollar was paid for the franchise exempts every one connected with the two interested corporations from guilt.

The fact that the president of the United Railroads is to remain in this city for some time and that his chief legal adviser, F. D. Atterbury, one of the eminent attorneys of New York bar, is to remain here also indicates that Calhoun is preparing to give battle to the graft prosecutors. He is a famous fighter in battles of this kind, and it is expected that he has some surprises to spring on the prosecutors.

GRIBE QUESTION. It still remains for Calhoun to explain where the money came from which the Supervisors received, according to their confessions for their votes on the trolley franchise ordinance. Supervisor Gallagher has confessed that he received $15,000 for his services in securing the passage of the franchise, and fifteen other Supervisors have testified that they were each paid $4000 for their votes. It is claimed the books of the United Railroads do not show any money was paid out of the treasury as indicated, and Calhoun makes his sweeping denial of the charges of bribery.

It is reported that Abe Ruef was retained as counsel of the United Railroads for the purpose of securing the trolley franchise, and Calhoun has never denied the employment of Ruef as attorney, yet his statement of Ruef would include even Ruef, if the latter was one of counsel for the corporation at the time of the passage of the ordinance by the Supervisors.

BIG IMPROVEMENTS. Another object of the visit of Calhoun to this city is to make plans and put them into execution for the improvement of the street car service and the system of the corporation.

It is stated on good authority that the United Railroads will issue new $5,000,000 bonds for the purpose of buying new cars and making new tracks. By the end of February, 1908, the United Railroads will have spent the sum of $11,000,000 in rehabilitating its tracks and rolling stock and improvements to the system since the disaster of April, 1906.

NEW ALAMEDA COUNCILMEN AND MAYOR HOLD CAUCUS

Talk Over Appointment of City Officials—But Few Changes Are to Be Made.

ALAMEDA, April 12.—The newly elected City Council met in caucus session last night at the home of Councilman-at-large Fisher, on San Antonio avenue.

It was decided by the nine members present, and the mayor, that James Gillogly, the present city clerk, should be replaced. Gillogly was a staunch Forrester supporter in the recent campaign. As the city clerk is to act as private secretary to the Mayor it was thought it would be impossible to have harmony, and the change was decided on. Frank Browning and J. C. Calder are the aspirants for the office, with the chance favoring the former.

After much discussion, Frank Sumner Loop was decided on for president of the council and he will be formally elected at the first meeting of the body on Monday night. The office was offered to Bert Fisher, one of the Councilman-at-large, elected by the largest vote, but he declined the office. Loop, another Councilman-at-large, was then decided on.

CONRAD FAVORED. According to the members of the council they are favorable to Chief of Police Conrad, and there will be no change in his position.

The fire and police commission will be carefully selected and it is said they will all be Conrad men. Chief Krauth of the fire department is looked on as a favorite man and will be retained. There will be no change in the other minor offices. There may be one or two changes in the Board of Education and the same number on the Board of Health, but nothing definite was decided on last night. G. H. Ward, who was defeated by Robert Geo for the council by one vote, was mentioned as a desirable citizen to be placed on one of the commissions. It was rumored that Joseph F. Forrester, the defeated candidate for mayor, will be nominated as a member of the electricity commission.

OFFICE IN DOUBT. It was not decided at the meeting last night if there would be a new city attorney. The position is now held by M. W. Simpson, who was opposed by Mayor Taylor in the recent meeting. The discussion of the possibility of harmony between the mayor and the members of the council, Mayor Taylor said that he was pleased with the make-up of the council, and that he could be advanced during his term of office. No action was taken regarding the appointment of commissions last night, and the subject will be given careful consideration before any appointments are made, which may be two or three weeks from now.

affidavit, however, Johnson formally moved the disqualification of O'Neill and Walsh, "on the ground that they are biased and prejudiced in favor of the defendant, Russell, and would summon as jurors such persons only as are pledged to the interests of Russell."

The affidavit of Edmund Coblenz, a newspaper reporter, recited that in October, 1906, he was present at the reception given to Mayor Schmitz in the grand saloon of the Hotel de Ville, in the city of San Francisco, and that during the course of the reception he observed that the city-graft investigation and prosecution.

COLEMAN SAID.

The affidavit of Supervisor Daniel J. Coleman declared that he was president of the Metropolitan League, an organization formed to maintain the Ruf-Schmitz administration, and that he was a member of the political situation in San Francisco; that Sheriff O'Neill was a vice-president of the Metropolitan League, and that he was a member of its executive committee; that the expenses of the Schmitz reception were defrayed by contributions from municipal employees.

The affidavit of Secretary Louis Levey of the Board of Public Works recited that he was secretary of the Metropolitan League; that the expenditures of the Schmitz reception were about $3500; that the Metropolitan League had subscribed to a reception fund and were present at the reception. "We were all with a good heart to denounce the Ruf-Schmitz administration," he concluded. The affidavit of Supervisor John J. Roney declared that Sheriff O'Neill subscribed $200 to the reception fund and that Coroner Walsh also subscribed.

The affidavit of John G. Lawlor stated that during the conversation had by him in the grand saloon with Coroner Walsh, the latter said in respect to the bribery-graft question, "I believe this is a political conspiracy hatched up to send innocent men to San Quentin."

The affidavit of Francis F. Oliver of the Grand Jury recited that in his presence during the examination of Grand Juror Greenbaum the latter testified that he belonged to the Citizens' Alliance Association; that Sheriff O'Neill, sitting beside Oliver, thereupon was accused in a whisper by another person who said, "Greenbaum is a liar. I know that he belongs to the Citizens' Alliance; that O'Neill replied, 'Hurry over there and tell Ruf. We'll catch this fellow and take the goods on him and we won't do a thing to him.'"

Mr. Ach, the reading of the affidavits being concluded, renewed his request that the prosecution separate its motions for a disqualification of the sheriff and the moving of a special venire and the appointment of an elisor to summon them.

ACH SAID: "It seems to us that these affidavits go merely to the question of disqualification if they go that far. If the court is going to proceed in this usual way and order that the venire be drawn from the jury list, a sufficient number of jurors to fill the panel, this defendant may or may not oppose the appointment of an elisor for the purpose merely of summoning them. On that point counsel for the defendant is silent. On the other hand, the court contemplates the ordering of a special venire, to be drawn by an elisor, we must have time to go over these affidavits and subpoena some of the affidavits."

WOULD SAVE TIME.

"I think much time would be saved if the matter of the special venire were now ruled upon. And I may say that if a special venire is contemplated by the court it will be desperately—forcibly—resisted by us."

Johnson suggested that the defense be given until 3 o'clock to prepare counter affidavits if they so desired; otherwise that counsel proceed with argument at once.

Ach responded that if the venire matter were to be taken up now he was ready to proceed with argument against it, but that if the matter of the elisor were to be jointly concluded he would require time to controvert the allegations of bias brought by the State.

"I insist," said Johnson, "that we proceed all together."

OPINION OF COURT.

"I think," said Judge Dunne, "that the first thing to do is to appoint an elisor. I don't want to anticipate your defense, Mr. Ach, but I think that the court has been sufficiently advised to pass upon the unfitness of the Sheriff and the Coroner. As I have said before, I have no confidence in them."

Ach said: "The court having practically intimated at this time what its ruling will be, I ask that counsel now proceed with argument on the motion for the appointment of an elisor, reserving the right to make our showing in response to the State."

WARFARE OF WORDS.

At this point Johnson and Ach entangled themselves in a warfare of words, both keeping their feet and both insisting upon summoning Ruf. Ach turned upon Johnson for what he termed to quote the continuous interruptions by counsel for the people, was himself admonished to talk less and listen to someone else for a minute.

"This is all child's play," protested Johnson, making a gesture to Ach.

"It is about time," retorted the latter, "that counsel be stopped in remarks of this sort."

DUNNE TO RESCUE.

Judge Dunne straightened things out by announcing that he would first take up the question of elisorship and thereafter the matter of a special venire.

Johnson had no objection to the defense being given until Monday to prepare counter affidavits, and adjournment until that day was decided upon.

"We shall then have witnesses here—Lawlor, Roney, Levey, Coleman and Oliver—on question then under oath as to the statements contained in their affidavits."

"You can't," denied Johnson. "The law does not allow it."

"I will not hear witnesses," said Judge Dunne. "You may present affidavits."

Adjournment was taken until Monday.

CHARGES FALL TO GROUND

Examiner Editors Are Cleared of False Charges Made to Jury.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—"Editor" Grady, on whose alleged authority were published statements that the Examiner had, three years ago, paid $5000 to have ballot boxes stuffed in an election primary, was finally brought to face the Grand Jury.

On the witness stand he attempted to protect the men who induced him to "stand for" the absurd libel by getting behind the criminal's usual refuge—a refusal to answer on the ground that to do so would incriminate him.

Assistant District Attorney Heney asked him if he had ever made the statements attributed to him.

"I decline to answer," said Grady. "On the grounds that it might incriminate me," answered Heney.

He was then excused and when outside again he stated that he had maintained silence before the Grand Jury because he did not wish to be further mixed up with the affair. He will not again be called upon to testify.

Before he entered the Grand Jury room, Grady was told enough, declaring he had never made any such statement as recited by Fremont Oldes, editor of the Bulletin in his extraordinary communication to District Attorney Langdon, but once under oath, Grady shut up like a clam.

"I am not in the confession business," said Grady. "Do you think I am such a fool as to admit that I engaged in ballot box stuffing? Detective Burns has not stated that I made such a confession to him. There is nothing to this charge."

William F. Humphrey was another witness who was examined. He was interested in the campaign of 1904, and made the fight for several delegates favored by James O'Brien at the primaries. He stated that he knew nothing of any money being spent by the Examiner in the interests of O'Brien or had he any knowledge of any illegal voting at the primaries.

Royal Leaguers Elect Officers

CHICAGO, April 12.—W. E. Hyde of Chicago was re-elected supreme archon of the Royal League yesterday in the final session of the league convention. Fifty-two delegates, representing 31,000 members of the order were present. One important change was made in the constitution, whereby the convention of the supreme delegates will assemble but once in two years instead of each year.

The officers elected were: Supreme Archon, W. E. Hyde, Chicago; supreme vice-archon, T. V. Dalby, Milwaukee; supreme scribe, C. E. Piper, Chicago; supreme treasurer, Holmes Hope, Chicago; supreme prolate, A. C. Brownlee, Denver; supreme guide, John Green, Cleveland; supreme warden, John Weerts, St. Louis; supreme sentry, John B. Perry, Minneapolis.

AMERICAN DELEGATES TO HAGUE PEACE CONFERENCE

Cabinet Holds Session and Announces Names of Those Who Will Represent America.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Today's Cabinet meeting was the shortest that has been held for some time. The session lasted only half an hour. At its conclusion the names of the delegates to the peace conference were announced. Owing to the growing importance of the approaching congress and the extension of the progress the number of delegates has been slightly increased.

As announced today the American delegates will be as follows: Joseph H. Choate, former Ambassador, to Great Britain; General Horace Porter, former Ambassador to France; E. M. Ross, of Arkansas, former president of the American Bar Association; David Jayne Hill, American Minister to the Netherlands; Brigadier-General George Davis, Judge Advocate General, U. S. A., and formerly professor of International law at the United States Military Academy; Rear-Admiral Charles S. Sperry, U. S. N.; William I. Buchanan, formerly Minister to Argentina and to Panama, and chairman of the American delegation to the Rio conference; Secretary William Chandler Hale of Maine, formerly secretary of the American embassy at Vienna; James Brown Scott, solicitor of the Department of State, expert attaché; Charles Henry Butler, reporter of the United States Supreme Court.

The delegates will sail from New York for The Hague about the middle of May.

MARK TWAIN PLANS TO ERECT BIG VILLA

That Mark Twain, when last in Washington, was only joking when he talked to old friends as if he did not expect to live much longer, and that he was prepared to go is demonstrated by the fact that he has just accepted the plans for a fine villa to be built on a large tract of land he owns near West Redding, Conn.

The villa has been designed by a son of the humorist's chum, William Dean Howells, and is patterned after that in which he lived for so long a time in Italy with his wife and daughter, who are now dead. The estate is said to be all that Mark Twain saved out of the wreck of his fortune caused by the disastrous failure several years ago by the publishing house in which he had a proprietary interest. Mr. Clemens kept everything except this estate go to settle the debts of the firm, and then he resumed his hard work again, out of which he has accumulated another comfortable fortune. His wife had dreamed of duplicating on the estate the charming villa in which she had spent so many happy days with her devoted husband under the bright skies of Italy, and it is said that Mark Twain is erecting the villa more as a mark of reverential respect for her than for his own comfort.—Washington Herald.

RE-DEDICATION OF INSTITUTE

Carnegie Schools Visited by Large Number of Guests—Program Given.

PITTSBURGH, April 12.—Inclement weather somewhat retarded the events planned for the second day of re-dedication of the Carnegie Institute. The proceedings began with an inspection by the American foreign guests of the various departments of the Carnegie technical schools, the schools being in full operation during the inspection.

Following the inspection of the schools, the guests went to the Hotel Schenley. At noon all the guests boarded automobiles and were taken to the Allegheny country club, where luncheon was served.

Mr. Carnegie was so fatigued because of yesterday's events that he was unable to be present at the exercises today. He is expected at tonight's banquet to be given in his honor at the Hotel Schenley by the board of trustees of the Carnegie Institute.

KNOWLAND IS TO BE INVITED

Santa Rosas Desire to Hear Congressman's Lecture on Panama Canal.

SANTA ROSA, April 12.—Santa Rosa Chamber of Commerce has decided to make an advance in the work it is organized for, and at a meeting of the directors several plans were considered and resolved upon. It was decided to invite Congressman Duncan E. McKinlay to deliver his stereoscopic lecture on the Panama Canal here in the near future under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce.

Both Congressmen were in the junketing party that went from Washington and Mr. Knowland took a large number of interesting views, which have been made into slides. Congressman Knowland has a few such work, and for several years has delivered an illustrated lecture under the auspices of the N. S. G. W., on the California Missions, which is highly spoken of by all who have heard it.

The entertainment committee were authorized to join in the proposed entertainment of the Counties Committee of the California Promotion Committee which meets at Petaluma in June next. The visitors will come to Santa Rosa on a Saturday, arriving here at 4:30 o'clock, and will be shown about the city and surrounding country and received by Mr. Luther Burdett, after which a banquet will be tendered them.

MILLS RETIRES FROM RAILROAD

Well Known Capitalist Gradually Leaving His Many Positions of Affluence.

NEW YORK, April 12.—At their first meeting since the annual gathering of the stockholders, the directors of the Southern Pacific railroad accepted yesterday afternoon the resignation of D. O. Mills from the board. W. Bayard Cutting was elected in his stead.

The meeting was the first of the new board. All the old officers were re-elected for the ensuing year, including E. H. Harriman, president.

Mr. Mills was 81 years old last September. There are twenty or more corporations that Mr. Mills still helps to direct. At the officers of the Southern Pacific company it was said that Mr. Mills had no reason for resigning, except his desire to withdraw from active business.

Mr. Mills was not a member of the executive committee, which was re-elected at yesterday afternoon's meeting. Mr. Cutting, successor to Mr. Mills on the board, is known to be a friend of Mr. Harriman. He is a lawyer, a director of many corporations and a member of various clubs.

Ogden Mills, the son of D. O. Mills, remains on the Southern Pacific board. The resignation of Mr. Mills as a director of the Erie Railroad company was announced yesterday.

At Mr. Mills' office it was said that he had been ill with the grip at his home for two weeks. It was added that he was not a large stockholder in either the Erie or the Southern Pacific.

City Engineer Turner Suggests Placing of Sewer Bond Money in Banks

There is sewer work amounting to about $311,000 contracted for at this time and it will begin as soon as possible, said City Engineer Turner this morning. The sum is about $200,000 more money ready for work but will not be needed inside of one year as that amount covers work not contracted.

I will suggest at the next meeting of the Board of Public Works that this $200,000 be deposited in a bank on time deposit. By the treasurer's only deposit in this sum is only earning 2 per cent interest. On time deposit the city will be paid at least 3 per cent interest.

The sewer bonds draw 3 per cent interest and I contend that the 1 per cent over interest the city will receive on time deposit will be a mere bagatelle. One year from now I am confident contractors can give the city better bids than at this time. The delay of material is a great item to a contractor and at this time he is handicapped by the railroads. This I do not think will be the case one year from now and I further think that prices of material will have reached a normal plane by that time all of which will be of benefit and value to the city.

PROTEST IN LARGE BODY

Half a Hundred Angry Citizens Appear Before Council and Complain.

Protest of every resident living near about two acres of low ground north of the Southern Pacific Railway tracks between Eighth and Ninth avenues, south of Tenth street was heard last night by the Street Committee of the City Council. The placard complained of is a cesspool into which empties three main sewers and there is no opening.

There was one bid received by the Board of Public Works to construct an outlet to this cesspool but it was deemed too high by the board. It was sent to the Council and last night half a hundred of the protesters were in the Council chamber making personal protest.

It was decided by the committee to recommend acceptance of the bid unless it was found that the city was permitted by law to do the work itself which would be lower according to City Engineer Turner.

City Engineer Tells Councilmen That Better Salaries Are Necessary

City Engineer Turner told the Ordinance and Judiciary Committee that it was absolutely necessary that a new ordinance be passed granting his office more fees. The one now in effect was passed in 1898 when prices were lower and salaries considerably less than now. He says five per cent increase is necessary in order to raise salaries of men in his office and give him additional help.

The matter came up when an ordinance was presented amending the present ordinance fixing fees in his office the expense of which shall be paid for by bonding the city where expenses are paid by district assessment. This ordinance was recommended.

AUTO TRIP DELAYED THREE TIMES

Peter White was chagrined this morning over the unpleasant automobile trip he took to the country yesterday afternoon with Sheriff Barnett. Before they got to High street the first auto broke and had to be returned to Oakland. The second was not much of an improvement. Long before the party reached Centerville their proposed destination three times went flat about the same time Sheriff Barnett displayed considerable skill at working the pump but Jailer White labored over the pump handle until huge blisters arose on his hands. This morning he is nursing them and says that he will never go automobilizing again.

We were finally stopped in the road seven miles from nowhere and had to get a lift to take us into Centerville, said White.

Sheriff Barnett and Jailer White went out to Centerville to transact business principally gathering evidence in the murder case against William Santos proprietor of the United States Hotel at Centerville. Santos is in the county jail on a charge of murder. He is accused of beating an Italian over the head with a beer bottle which caused the latter's death a few weeks ago.

GRANT LICENSE TO RESTAURANT

When the application for liquor license of the Croner Brothers of the Croner Island Cafe 920 Broadway came up for hearing before the council license committee last night, Mr. Bacon opposed the application. He stated that there had been a quarrel there last night in which a customer was hit over the head and a waiter cut on the hand. Mr. Bacon appeared to be alone in his opposition.

Attorney James H. Creeley appeared for the applicants and his talk was so effective that the recommendation was made to the Council that the license be granted.

Gold-bricking the Democracy.

The Greeks are coming to the Democratic party bearing gifts. There is an ancient warning to be on the lookout for such visitors. We are not the guardian of the Democratic party, and are not particularly concerned about its welfare, but it is an old acquaintance and has been of some service to the state. Hence we would be grieved to see it gold-bricked as it was when Horace Greeley was made its candidate in 1872 and again when Judge Parker was placed at the head of its ticket. Pity forbids that the unhappy, stubborn, foolish old thing should be buncoed too often. The Philadelphia Record urges the nomination of a Southern Democrat in 1908 on the winning issue of individualism against paternalism and centralization of power in the Federal government.

"The country is governed too much," it says, "and with rank favoritism. Let the South name a Democrat, not a dreamer, and stand him on an old-fashioned Democratic platform. The time is ripe for a return of the government within the fold of the Constitution. The South is in a position to demand the leadership. She has stood by the Democratic colors through thick and thin and earned recognition."

Clearly this is aimed at Mr. Bryan, who is the solitary hope of the Bourbons in this hour of their extremity. He is but a forlorn hope, but he can poll more votes than any other man in the Democratic party and can win it any Democrat can. A contest between a reactionary Republican and a locofoco from the South is what the Record would like to see, another waving of the bloody shirt and a hurrah against the rebel brigadiers. It would be like a muster roll of the dead and a battle of skeletons.

The New York Sun chips in with this sage and disinterested advice:

"The South is in a position to dictate the Democratic nomination in 1908. No candidate distasteful to the Southern delegates is likely to be seriously considered. If they present a firm front against Mr. Bryan or any other man he will be dropped as unavailable. No man can be the logical candidate if the South doesn't want him, although it will be in the minority in the convention. The section for Mr. Bryan to canvass with his sample case containing the panacea of ultimate government ownership is the South and not New England—impotent and barren New England. Mr. Bryan of course knows this, but he would like to go down into the South with as many promises of delegates from the North as he can muster, realizing that the South is cold to him because it will have none of government ownership, the mere suggestion of which fills it with the gloomiest forebodings."

Bryan and Bryanism are as distasteful to the Sun as Roosevelt and Rooseveltism. The Sun hopes to beat Roosevelt in the Republican National Convention, but is afraid that the victory will be barren unless Bryan can be prevented from running on the Democratic ticket. Bryan has no chance of winning against Roosevelt or a man representative of Roosevelt ideas and policies, but he would be a dangerous candidate against a reactionary like Foraker or Fairbanks. Hence the Sun's anxiety for the nomination of a Southern Democrat on an old-fashioned Democratic platform. Such a candidate would be as harmless as syrup of squills. He couldn't beat a carpet left alone a live Republican.

The Democratic party would do well to beware of bunco steers.

On Jefferson's birthday three celebrations will be held in New York City. One is to be addressed by Judge Parker, the second by Mr. Bryan and the third by Mr. Hearst. All three represent different kinds of Democracy and advocate radically dissimilar policies, but each one will extol the memoirs of Jefferson and insist that he is a true follower of the teachings of the founder of the Democratic party.

Hon. Bat Masterson, professor of gun-play, prize ring practice and greencloth ethics, announces that Theodore Roosevelt is the greatest man that ever sat in the Presidential chair. Hon. Bat acknowledges that Washington was a pretty fair sort of a man, and that Lincoln did considerable good for the country, but he does not believe either is entitled to trot in the same class with the present strenuous chief executive. He says:

You can just put it down as an absolute fact that Theodore Roosevelt is the greatest President this country has ever seen and that he will be re-nominated and re-elected next year. Why, none of them can compare with him. Lincoln was a good sort of a man and did a whole lot for the country while he served as President, and Washington did a lot too, but they couldn't hold a candle to this man we've got now. They can't come up to him.

After receiving so unqualified an endorsement from so distinguished and picturesque a citizen as Hon. Bat Masterson we cannot see how the President can refuse a third term.

Concerning the Schmitz Reception.

And now it develops that the San Francisco municipal employees paid the cost of that reception to Fiddler Schmitz. The San Francisco grafters not only worked the city and the public, but did not hesitate to graft off one another. Isn't there honor even among thieves any more? So says the Los Angeles Herald. This is a fine sample of clotted nonsense. It was known at the time, and never was denied that the mayor's friends in the municipal administration got up the celebration in his honor when he returned from Europe. There never was any concealment about it, nothing strange, peculiar or dishonest. The Herald, in common with many others, appears to be unable to distinguish between acts that are criminal and demonstrations of a political character entirely within the law and the bounds of propriety. Justice is not aided or the truth illuminated by holding up in pretended horror as outrageous and criminal acts which are not even reprehensible in the eyes of the law and which are not within contravention of public morals. The reception to Schmitz is to be criticized on the score of taste, but it is nonsense to represent that there was anything about it out of the ordinary. It is the rule (and a bad one too) for job-holders to be called on to contribute toward the expense of demonstrations in honor of political chiefs to whom they acknowledge allegiance and by whose grace they hold office. Usually it is not a matter of compulsion but willingness, nay eagerness, to give a proof of loyalty. It would be well to stop giving such proofs of loyalty—not because of the circumstances attending this special instance, but on general principles—but public opinion not the law as the agency to stop it. Nor are political manners to be improved

THE RAILROAD STRIKE IS SETTLED BEFORE IT BEGINS.

By Looking Closely It Will Be Seen That Employer and Employee Are Not the Only Happy Ones.

The War Among the Unions.

Work on a large number of buildings in San Francisco is tied up because of a fight between labor unions. No question of wages or hours enters into the dispute, in which the contractors and building owners have no interest. Because the union of Electrical Wiremen, Local No. 6, refused to submit to the jurisdiction and authority of the Building Trades Council that organization has expelled the electrical wiremen and put their union under ban. In consequence they have quit work on some twenty-five large buildings on which they were employed, causing a general stoppage of operations on those structures. By putting the electrical wiremen under ban some 2500 men acknowledging allegiance to the Building Trades Council have been temporarily thrown out of employment.

The issue between the unions is not one for outsiders to judge or decide, but when it is fought out in a way to injure the public interests and entail unnecessary cost, delay and inconvenience on employers and property-owners who are in no wise concerned in the controversy the general public is drawn into the dispute against its will. This quarrel should be speedily settled or determined in such a manner as not to interfere with building operations.

Owing to the high price of labor and materials, the expense of building in San Francisco is excessive, and the difficulty and delay in getting materials delivered have retarded operations seriously. Now rival labor organizations have chosen to fight an internecine battle to the further harassment and expense of the stricken city. Everything must stop while pig-headed labor leaders battle for supremacy. The spectacle is a reproach to unionism. It is indicative of stupid leadership and wanton indifference to the general welfare. It is a sure way of provoking antagonism to unionism.

If D. M. Delmas has accomplished nothing else in the Thaw case he has enriched criminal jurisprudence with two new and striking terms—"brainstorms" and "dementia Americana." These terms will be permanently embalmed in the rhetoric of the law.

DOWN THE LINE WHERE THEY ALL HANG OUT.

If cleanliness is next to godliness, Oakland's all to the bad, for while the laundry strike is on clean clothes cannot be had. The men are wearing sweaters and dressing negligee, and for the ladies' clean snurt waists I guess it's 23.

Instead of on the piano they practice on the tub, They are doing all their washing, and that's where comes the tub. No more they're going down the line but are hanging out at home, While hubby stays in evenings, he never cares to roam.

A clean boiled shirt's a luxury you'll find is very rare, And union suits are all they'll wash at laundries that are fair. One good turn deserves another, this for cuffs and collars, And while the laundry strike is on the "chinks" will get our dollars. KELLY, the Union Poet

WHERE TOWNS GROW RAPIDLY.

Apropos of the mushroom growth of new towns on the western frontier, a locomotive engineer relates the following to the Minneapolis Journal:

"One day I was driving my engine across the prairie when suddenly a considerable town loomed up ahead where nothing had showed up the day before.

"What town is this?" says I to my fireman.

"Blamed if I know," said Bill. "It wasn't here when we went over the road yesterday."

"Well, I slowed down, and directly we pulled into the station, where over 500 people were waiting on the platform to see the first train come in.

SOCIETY: GOSSIP ABOUT THE SMART SET

Miss Hazel C. Marston became the bride of Frederick Winslow Read last evening at one of the prettiest weddings of the season celebrated in Christ Church, Alameda.

The church was beautifully decorated in yellow and white, the bride's attendants also carrying yellow blossoms and ferns.

The bride wore a beautiful wedding gown of white liberty satin, trimmed with Irish point lace that belonged to her mother. She wore a long tulle veil fastened with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Miss Jean Read, the maid of honor, wore a white silk gown, elaborated

Hose and Gloves of Fine Quality for the Winners.

WANTS HOSE AND GLOVES

I intend to go and pose:
See if I can't win those hose;
For I have quite handsome arms,
And other features that are charms;
Neck is good and shoulders are plump and nice as good cigar.

I am proud of my elbows:
End of each a dimple shows;
Wrists are round and rather small—
Twenty am I, and not tall;
Will not tell you what I weigh:
Picture will have its little say.

Of my face I will not brag;
Still, no one can call me hag;
Hair is brown and oh, so long—
But I'm going it too strong;
So with these few words I'll close:
Gloves for me: and lovely hose.

The foregoing sonnet by a Berkeley girl is certainly dashy and breezy. She has the true poetic fire. One can almost fancy how she looks from her graphic recital in rhyme.

A San Leandro matron sends this to Phidias: "I stand well in what might be called the 'upper circles' here. What folks will remark when they note my phiz, etc., in THE TRIBUNE is just now a poser, but they are going to indulge in some reflections. Well, it is the way of the world, so I'll not complain. Really, I can't figure out there is any harm in this campaign of arms. Also, the prizes you offer are worth the ordeal of letting the camera trace one's features. My husband is willing and that's a big influence in the matter. He said the other day, jokingly, possibly: 'You can't fail to win those stockings.' But I had my retort all ready and he got it direct, for I replied: 'Yes, I am the one, and when they shy so, you have got to get me a new hat and dress—mind.'"

"Mr. Phidias, you'll notice I posed in odd costume. At first I decided to wear a silk and lace waist, with the cunningest bows

The marriage of Miss Lucile Dunham and Mr. McCaffery took place last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Dunham, on Filbert street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. The attractive bride, gowned in white, was attended by Miss Doris Tate as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Nellie Vance of San Francisco and Miss Pearl Swanton of Santa Cruz. After a wedding supper Mr. and Mrs. McCaffery left in a honeymoon trip and on their return will reside in this city.

VENETIAN FOULARD PLEASING FOR WOMEN

Material Looks Like Heavy Moir Crepe

A most delicate example of the brown and white effects is shown in the Venetian foulard, which is one of the high-class and high-price novelties and should find quick favor with women who can afford to pay $6 a yard for silk. The material at first glance looks more like a heavy moir crepe than a foulard, but it has good body and wearing qualities combined with an exquisite suppleness. This silk will doubtless be shown in many designs, but, so far, we have seen it only in one design. The colorings were blue and white, green and white and brown and white, and the stuff was woven in patterns. That is, a border design was repeated at yard-and-a-half intervals, the idea, of course, being that a skirt should have a border and yet be made up of lengthwise of the goods instead of being made crosswise, as in the case of ordinary border materials.

In this new foulard there is a deep border of very large white dots about the size of a half dollar upon a dark ground. Above this border, dots graduating in size from a large water dot next the border to half that size at the end of the pattern are set in rows, giving an effect of longitudinal stripes about four inches apart.

Another novelty is a silk slightly suggesting the rajah and pongee weaves, yet entirely new. It is being introduced under the name of mirage de fantaisie, which the salesmen are shortening to mirage; and the appropriateness of this title lies in the fact that the silk is a two-tone mixture giving a dark back and a much lighter surface, over which are shadowy hints of the darker color. This silk is offered in a variety of charming shades—queer Japanese blue, deep, yet full of life and shading almost to black in the shadows, a lovely almond green, a bright maroon, and odd red approaching ox blood and, best of all, a silvery gray of the purest, softest tone, one of the best grays we have seen in any material in this year of gray.

Stripes gain in number and importance as more and more of the new stuffs appear, and indications are that the stripe idea so popular in Paris last fall will have even more successful innings this summer. Even where no definite color stripe appears there is often—as, for example, in many of the new embroidered Swisses—a grouping of the embroidery or printed design to indicate striping and, as has been suggested, striped backgrounds, whether in one tone or two-tone colorings, are many.

In voile and similar sheer stuffs one finds many one-tone stripe designs, with stripes of varying width achieved in the weaving, or often with satin-finished stripes. Lovely sheer voiles are shown, too, with big satin-finished dots in self-tone at rather wide intervals over the voile surface.

Among the new suitings—which are, by the way, extremely attractive—one finds the stripe again in a host of attractive forms, but most often without violent contrast of color and line. Smartest of all, perhaps, are suitings in which gray and light brown are mingled. It sounds a trifle hazardous, and it would be easy to achieve hideousness by associating the two colors, but up-to-date milliners and dress-makers have shown how subtly and delightfully certain grays of smoky tone and certain browns of grayish tinge can be made to harmonize, and the manufacturers of suitings have taken the lesson to heart, lightning both the grays and browns to bring them into tune with spring gaiety, but preserving their harmonious relations.

GIRL EXCITES MOB INTO FRENZY OVER STATEMENT

Accuses Man of Attacking Her Mother

PHILADELPHIA, April 12.—Prompt action on the part of Patrolman Dougherty, of the Eleventh and Winter streets station, alone saved Geo. Rexhart, 24 years old, of 829 Race street, from an angry crowd of persons. Rexhart was arrested as the result of a serious charge preferred by Ethel Levin, a 10-year-old child, of the same address.

The girl told the story of Rexhart's alleged brutality to her widowed mother when the latter returned home from work. Chief Police Surgeon Patterson was summoned, and after an examination ordered the girl's removal to the Hahnemann hospital. Mrs. Levin lost control of herself while Dougherty was making the arrest, and tried to get hold of Rexhart. Her cries drew a mob in front of the house, and Dougherty had to fight his way to the patrol wagon with his prisoner.

DECLARES COUNTRY WOMEN ARE DRESSED-UP STICKS

An Authority on Dress Stirs Up a Storm

LONDON, April 12.—English women know nothing about beauty and less than nothing about dress, according to Dion C. Calthrop, who in a statement recently characterized his country women as "dressed-up sticks." Mr. Calthrop's assertion is certain to stir up a storm, for he is acknowledged to be the leading English authority on dress. He is an artist and author of high standing, and his special hobby is the study of clothes. He had studied the evolution of costume from Eve's scanty wardrobe down to the wonderful trousseau of the present day girl, and has written many books on the subject, one of them being a "History of English Costume."

Mr. Calthrop declares men know far more about dress than women, and says it is because they consider women in the perspective, while a woman considers herself in a series of bits, never as a whole nor as an individual. "The result," he says, "is there is no individualism in dress among women, or by a number of sticks dressed up according to fashion, each as much like the other as possible. The street used to be filled with Du Maurier girls, now it is Gibson girls. Whatever their features are, they must be squeezed, elongated, pulled and pinched until each one resembles every other.

"This is probably due to the fact that women are not sure of their own beauty. They are afraid of it, of themselves, and of each other. It is absurd, for there are no ugly women. A few may be plain, but the rest are beautiful. It lies within the power of a plain woman to become beautiful and of a beautiful woman to become more beautiful by emphasizing her individuality in special features."

Mr. Calthrop holds that early Victorian women knew more about dress than the modern women, consequently each appeared as a complete picture. Mr. Calthrop is married and his wife is exemplified in his criticism, for he considers her one of the few well-dressed women in England. He designs most of her clothes.

SOCIAL LIFE of Children

Among all the articles that are written about children—their health, their schooling, their clothing, the development of their minds, their moral training—there is one point that is very little touched upon, and that is their social life. Yet in all the art of living—which is so deeply interesting because it offers larger achievement to those who have the patience to study it—there is no subject that requires more attention than that of providing social life in the home for children. It is in the hours of recreation that the character is most plainly shown and most easily formed. And no amusement that a mother isn't in some way part of has any real life in it—that's the strangest thing about it. It isn't necessary, or even advisable, that she should take part in every play, or always be with her children—but she must be felt by them to be back of the pleasure.

OF ROBBERY

Kentucky Man Is Laid at the Door of Three.

BEATTYVILLE, Ky., April 12.—Warfare have been issued for the arrest of John Merrill, Bud Regley and Haylen Reynolds, charging them with murdering Jesse Abner, whose dead body was found there last night with three bullets in the back.

Abner is a relative of John Abner, charged jointly with the Harbaces, Calahan, and others with killing Dr. R. D. Cox.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 12.—It is stated today that John Abner has confessed, giving details of the murder of Dr. Cox. Attorneys for the prosecution are said to have the confession, which will not be made public yet.

SUICIDE VERDICT OF CORONER'S JURY

Coroner Tisdale and jury held an inquest into the cause of death of Thomas A. Keating. The jury returned a verdict of death from a gunshot wound inflicted while laboring under mental aberration.

Prisoner at City Jail Declares That He Was Held Up by Thugs.

Charles Milk, formerly an employee of the Ransome Construction Company, reports to the police he was robbed of $200 while making the rounds of several saloons last night. The police take but little stock in the story. Milk was intoxicated when arrested at midnight by Patrolman Crumpton on Telegraph avenue. He was locked up and told the robbery story this morning. There was $35.90 found in his pockets when searched last night.

APPOINTS APPRAISERS OF WOOLSEY'S ESTATE

Walter J. Barnes has been appointed a deputy in the office of the district attorney of Alameda county by District Attorney Brown.

Ambrose Carpenter Confesses to Forgery and Claims Gambling Caused His Downfall.

"I hoped to win the money and send it to Mr. Sullivan the day I was arrested," said Ambrose Carpenter, in his confession to the forging of checks to the amount of $1000 on the bank account of Edward J. Sullivan, the plumber, of 843 Ninth street.

"O, please, can't we reach a compromise in this matter, Mr. Brown," pleaded Carpenter to the District Attorney. "This will kill my mother. I can get the money to make up the balance and the matter can be all squared if you will only give me the chance."

HAD GAMBLED.

Carpenter partly confessed to the details of the bold act of forgery, but would not tell how he was aware of the fact that Sullivan had $1000 in the bank. Carpenter said he was a gambler from his childhood up and could not help but play cards and bet on the horse races. The race track and gambling were the cause of his undoing.

HAD NO FUNDS.

"Why, I know I have over $1000 in the bank," said Sullivan, and much to his surprise he was shown the checks with his endorsement.

The signature was somewhat similar to the card which the depositor signed when he placed his money in the bank about a year ago.

When arrested, Carpenter had $555 in green backs, $25 in gold and several dollars in silver. He declares that the banks will never get the money back and boasts of his past experience. Carpenter begged that the newspapers would be kept from learning of the affair.

MERRY PARTY ESCAPES DEATH

Was In Automobile Which Collided With Fast Moving Electric Car.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—Three automobiles were racing up Sutter street at the same time when a Sutter street car came rushing down the hill with the speed that has become customary through that part of the burned district, and one of the automobiles, driven by L. C. Larsen, dashed across the path of the oncoming car, hit the curb and swerved.

Cut out the picture and the answer blank which will be published every day, commencing Sunday, April 7th, and save until the close of the contest. This will enable you to think about the answers and afford ample time for all members of the family to offer suggestions. As all editions of THE TRIBUNE will be quickly sold out every day, we cannot guarantee to supply back numbers of the paper after the regular edition is sold out. To insure getting the TRIBUNE, order it delivered at your home. One week will be allowed after the publication of the last picture for answers to be sent in. This will afford time for careful answer of the final picture, as well as re-examination of all the pictures. The answers must be filled out in any legible way, by handwriting, typewriting, pencil, ink, etc. Address all answers to the Proverb Hunt Manager.

REAL ESTATE MAN WANTED

BERKELEY, April 12.—Wade Hampton Shadburne, the real estate agent who lives in a fashionable section of Berkeley is wanted by the police, who hold a warrant for his arrest on a charge of failing to provide for his little daughter, 4 years of age.

According to Secretary White of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, Shadburne has been convicted before on the same charge, but was allowed to go on his promise to reform.

Secretary White declares that while his wife and child are dependent upon the wife's relatives, Shadburne is living on this side of the bay.

CLAIMS HE'S ABLE TO RAISE UP DEAD

Professor George Poe, living in Norfolk county, Virginia, claims to be able to raise the dead by means of a machine which he calls a "respirator." The principle of the machine is to remove deadly gases from the lungs, and at the same time pump in oxygen.

The inventor declares the machine will resuscitate persons killed by asphyxiation, poison or drowning; prevent death by an anesthetic while a patient is being operated upon; prevent "infant asphyxia" at birth; make drunken men sober in a few minutes; revive men electrocuted or hanged, the latter only in cases where the neck has not been broken; prevent freezing to death, even in the Arctic.

Thomas Black, on being shown the plans, obtained permission to exhibit them to Dr. Francis M. Morgan, a physician of Norfolk. Dr. Morgan got Mr. Poe to demonstrate it before a committee of Norfolk county and Norfolk city doctors. They witnessed the smothering of rabbits and dogs to the point of what they declared on their professional honor was absolute death, and then saw them resuscitated.—Philadelphia North American.

The fire was a small one, being confined to the roof of a house, corner of Filbert and Seventh streets.

RAGS AND TATTERS AT THE LAKESIDE

When the spectator entered the Lakeside rink last night he was for a moment under the impression that he had strolled into a roller skating party for the poor and needy, but he soon discovered that such was not the case; that it was simply the rags and tatters party arranged by the management. Clothing cast away long ago was brought forth for the occasion and in many instances the effect was extremely ludicrous.

Tonight will be ladies' night at the rink and tomorrow afternoon there will be a graceful contest for children.

So popular have the last two roller polo games proved that the management intends to arrange for a third in the near future.

A maternity ward will be a leading feature of the institution, and Miss S. Gorman will be in charge. The hospital will accommodate forty-two patients, and will occupy a building three stories high on a site about half an acre in area, and the edifice is the main building of the Affiliated Colleges by Golden Gate Park. To those who are worthy and lack means the hospital service will be free.

HALT IN BUILDING.

Secretary George E. Russell, of Local No. 6, of the Electrical Wiremen, the organization barred by the Building Trades Council, is authority for the statement that work is suspended on twenty-five large concrete buildings and lesser structures. Other mechanics had to quit because of the walkout of 450 electricians. Secretary A. E. Yoeli of Local No. 1, of the Electrical Workers, a substitute organization fostered by the Building Trades Council, is laboring to draw recruits from the out-laid body. Various unions are backing P. H. McCarthy in his crusade against No. 6.

THE SIEWIERSKI CASE.

Alvin Siewierski, alleged defaulting treasurer of the United Brewers' Union, is in custody here. He was arrested in Arizona. The union offered $1000 reward for his apprehension. RUEF'S TRIAL ATTRACTS NOISILY-DRESSED WOMEN

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—The Ruef extortion case before Judge Dunne in the superior court, has, at length attracted the attention of women—that is, women who have perhaps little to do and who are not averse to passing their time in court during sensational trials. Yesterday afternoon, the first woman made her appearance in the case. She was accompanied by a girl with a flaming-red hat of the dimensions of a race-track. Both appeared late in the day and occupied a seat, or rather standing-room, in the rear of the chamber. There were seats upon which they could have found a resting place, but they preferred to stand, and even then both craned their necks to the utmost to catch a glimpse of the defendant.

ONCE YOUNGER WOMEN.
This morning two other women, who were once younger, wearing spectacles, made their appearance. They arrived after the defendant, Ruef, had taken his seat. They occupied a settee in the back part of the court and, like the pioneer woman visitor yesterday, stood up for fifteen minutes in an attempt to get a view of the defendant, whom a pale young man strove to indicate, but evidently without success. These women remained throughout the morning session.

My friend, look here! you know how weak and nervous your wife is, and you know that Carter's Iron Pills will relieve her now why not be fair about it and buy her a box?

A healthy man is a king in his own right; an unhealthy man is an unhappy slave. Burdock Blood Bitters builds up sound health—keeps you well.

They paid little attention to the dry legal proceedings, passing the time in an abstracted stare at the back part of the head of the man on trial.

Our Contest Arousing Intense Interest

This is a unique contest to enlist the interest of our patrons. The contest is based on a problem which is simplicity itself; six letters of the alphabet have been selected and placed in a sealed envelope. During the month every purchaser's name will be registered and on the last day of the month, when the contest closes, a committee of reliable men will compare all letters in the sealed envelope to determine who the lucky purchaser was whose name contained the greatest number of those six letters and to that person will be given a choice of two gifts. A BRUSSELS or AXMINSTER CARPET. It will be made, laid and lined without a cent of cost to you, or if you desire you can be the possessor of a fine pedestal, solid oak dining table and six leather box seat chairs to match. The name of the lucky person will be announced as soon as possible after the contest has closed. In case of a tie, prizes of equal value will be given.

UNVEILING OF MONUMENT TO DEAD HEROES' MEMORY

With Appropriate Military Pomp and Display Cenotaph to Fallen Rough Riders Is Unfolded.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—With an elaborate military display and appropriate airs, the monument erected to the memory of the men of the "Rough Riders," who served during the war with Spain, will be dedicated in Arlington this afternoon. In addition to the troops stationed in this vicinity and a part of the National Guard of the District of Columbia, the ceremonies will be participated in by President Roosevelt, who was colonel of the first volunteer cavalry of Rough Riders, members of the diplomatic corps, and officers of the navy and army.

CROWDS EAGER TO GAIN SIGHT OF THAW FAMILY

Five Thousand People Mob the Court House—Police Reserves Are Called Out.

NEW YORK, April 12.—At noon the crowd about the court house was so great that traffic was practically stopped. More than five thousand people gathered about the building and when a rumor spread that any member of the Thaw family was about to leave the building they surged from the corner to another, sweeping the new policemen who were trying to preserve order almost off their feet.

DESPERATE, THEY EAT THEIR BABIES

Children Are Traded Off.

SHANGHAI, April 12.—Telegrams received here from twenty points in the famine district report that the conditions are growing worse.

The Chinese Government and people up to date have contributed more than four million dollars for famine relief and the sums received from all foreign sources total half a million dollars, including the supplies on their way from America.

The Chinese viceroy and Governor telegraphed today to the American Consul, Mr. Rogers, their thanks for the relief sent, saying that it is dissipating the anti-foreign sentiment which animated the masses.

MISSIONARIES AID.

There are fifty missionaries with the higher class of Chinese engaged in overseeing the relief distribution.

Confucianists, Catholics and Protestants are working together. The telegraph officials are carrying free all messages to and from the relief works and the steamship companies are furnishing free transportation for supplies of food, etc., for the sufferers.

Twenty thousand of the famine sufferers are employed in building dams and canals to prevent a recurrence of the floods.

TEN MILLION SUFFER.

The relief committee here is promptly sending supplies to the front, but the funds are not yet in its possession. Measures adopted up to date are inadequate. Ten million persons are suffering from lack of food and facing starvation.

The members of the committee at the front report that they find the bodies of the sufferers bloated and that their faces turn green or black as the result of starvation. The people are pulling up the growing crops for food. Whole families have been found dead in their houses and corpses are seen lying by the roadside. Probably 5000 persons are dying daily from starvation.

RIOTING FOR FOOD.

A few cases of rioting for food have occurred and cannibalism is beginning to be reported. Natives have rifled the bodies of the dead and are exchanging their children to be eaten. A dollar, the relief committee reports will save one life until the harvest, June 25th, and $10,000,000 is needed. The whole amount cannot be raised in China. The situation is desperate and Americans are urged to give $3,000,000 in the next three weeks, not for Christian, but for humanitarian work. It is suggested that it would be best to cable the money to the Consul here, James Linn Rodgers, as supplies can be purchased in Shanghai.

Preacher Puts Fit Question

NEW YORK, April 12.—Before the 25th annual protestant Episcopal Church congress here today, Rev. George T. Van de Water, D. D., rector of St. Andrew's Church, of New York City, in an address, said:

"Shall the preacher concern himself in his preaching with the social questions of the day? Yes, if he is careful not to become such a faddist that he can preach about nothing else. How can a man be a preacher and not be deeply concerned with the social questions of the day?"

"Yet St. Paul was not forever harping about the incestuous Corinthians nor telling women on all occasions how to arrange their headgear when they went to church."

DEATH CALLS LOVED NEWSPAPER WRITER

"Jack" Tanner, After Years of Faithful Service, Turns in Last "Copy" and Goes to Great Beyond.

Death called John Harrison Tanner this morning at an early hour at the Providence hospital where he has been for the past week suffering from an attack of pneumonia and a complication of other diseases. He had been falling in health for the past several weeks, but it was not until a week ago that he consented to be taken to the hospital where he was placed under the care of his physician, Dr. Hamilton, who attended him up to the time of his death.

Since last Saturday night he has been in a semi-conscious state scarcely recognizing old acquaintances. Wednesday he rallied and for a time it was believed he would recover. But weakness again overtook him and he declined rapidly.

"Jack" Tanner, as he was more generally known by his old friends, was for many years connected with the big eastern dailies. He was a close friend of Richard Harding Davis, Peter Dunn (Mr. Dooley), George Ade, Alfred Henry Lewis, James Creelman and many other celebrated newspapermen. Tanner was for a long while Washington correspondent for New York and Baltimore papers. He occupied the position of Sunday Editor of the Chicago Inter-Ocean for many years.

His frank, good natured disposition gained him many friends on the coast when he came out here over a year ago. He had the assignment of the extension cases in the city for a San Francisco evening paper until coming to this side of the bay. For the past few months he has been representing the Superior court beat in this city. He was always a personal friend of Hearst.

John Harrison Tanner was thirty-nine years old, and unmarried. He was a native of New York state and he obtained his early schooling in Troy, New York. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

WHAT IS REMEDY?

Asks Heney, Referring to the Supervisors in an Address Today.

BERKELEY, April 12.—"Little good would be done merely by sending a lot of poor, ignorant Supervisors, or even Abe Ruef to the penitentiary," said Francis J. Heney to the university students at noon today.

"It is easy to convict a poor man, but it is as difficult to convict a rich man as it would be to send a camel through the eye of a needle. If we succeed in convicting men of wealth and political influence, men who value their reputations, we will succeed in inspiring a wholesome fear among others of the same class who have been or might become involved in political corruption."

MANY HEAR ADDRESS.

At least a thousand people from Berkeley and Oakland, besides the students, crowded into the university meeting hall this afternoon to hear Francis J. Heney and Colonel Henry Weinstein, the Sacramento merchant, who founded the Weinstein settlement. Colonel Weinstein spoke first. His subject was "Good Citizenship." He pointed out the vital difference between political corruption in this country and graft and corruption in such countries as Russia and Spain, which had never yet produced a Jerome, a Folk or a Heney. He said that the remedy lies in the strengthening of the people, especially through enacting into the curriculum of the moral education.

GOOD GOVERNMENT.

In introducing Heney to the audience, President Wheeler said that, above all else, the university believed in good government. He said that it is an official duty of the university to private advantage. It should be regarded as plain dealing. He said that it is an official duty of the university to private advantage. It should be regarded as plain dealing. He said that it is an official duty of the university to private advantage. It should be regarded as plain dealing.

WHAT HENAY SAID.

Mr. Heney said in part: "As your president states, I was once a student at this university. Twenty-eight years ago I was 'fired' by the faculty, and I am sorry to say that I was fired for fighting. The strange part of it all is the sequel in that I am invited back to address you because of my reputation for fighting. If I have any message for you it is that you should all learn to be fighting men. You should learn to fight the great battle of life. If you would succeed, fight for the right against wrong from the time you leave the university until you reach the end of your earthly journey."

"FIGHTING" DEFINED.

"I do not mean fighting in the sense of the ruffian who stalks men down with his fists. I mean that you should be a fighting man in the same sense as Theodore Roosevelt. Roosevelt is and has been a great moral exemplar in the United States today because he stands for righteousness in the civic government—not because he led men up to the top of Mount Rushmore. He would be a great moral exemplar in the United States today because he stands for righteousness in the civic government—not because he led men up to the top of Mount Rushmore. He would be a great moral exemplar in the United States today because he stands for righteousness in the civic government—not because he led men up to the top of Mount Rushmore."

S.S.S. PURIFIES THE BLOOD

There is no other part of our physical system upon which so much depends as upon the blood. The muscles, nerves, bones, sinews, skin, and other portions of the body are sustained, developed and enabled to perform their different duties, because they are supplied with nourishment and healthful properties through the circulation. In various ways the blood becomes contaminated and polluted. A sluggish, inactive condition of the system, and torpid state of the avenues of bodily waste, will leave the refuse and waste matter of the body to sour and form uric and other acids, which are absorbed into the blood and Rheumatism, or some itching, disfiguring skin disease is the result. Muddy, sallow complexions, eruptions, spots, pimples, etc., all show that some humor has taken root in the circulation and rendered it sour and unfit for nourishing the body. There is scarcely any disease which cannot be traced to the blood. Often the disease-tainted blood of parents is handed down to children and their lives are a continual battle against disease in some form, usually of a scrofulous nature: Rheumatism, Catarrh, Skin Diseases, Sores and Ulcers, Contagious Blood Poison, etc., are all deep-seated blood troubles, and until this vital fluid is purified they cannot be cured. For all blood diseases S. S. S. is the best remedy ever put upon the market. This great medicine is made of roots, herbs and barks of recognized blood-purifying and building-up properties. It goes down into the circulation and removes all poisons, impurities and humors, supplies the blood with the healthful properties it needs and completely cures blood diseases of every kind. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Sores and Ulcers, Contagious Blood Poison, etc., because it purifies the blood. Book on the blood and medical advice free.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—When Judge Dunne ascended the bench, Attorney Johnson made a motion for a special venire of talesmen for the purpose of continuing the trial, all the names which had been originally placed in the circular jury box having been stricken out. NOTED ARCHITECT TELLS OF OAKLAND'S NEW HOTEL Visitor Praises West—Predicts Wonderful Growth for Oakland—Says Destiny's Hand Points Westward.

"We are nineteen hours late and yet we seem to have arrived ahead of time," laughingly said Henry J. Hardenbergh, as he stepped off the Limited at noon today. Mr. Hardenbergh looked in vain for the gentlemen whose guest he would be while in the city. They had not counted on the delayed train arriving ahead of scheduled time.

Mr. Hardenbergh is probably the foremost hotel architect in the country, having built the Manhattan, the Waldorf, the new nineteen-story Plaza of New York, the Bellevue-Stratford of Philadelphia, the new Millard of Washington and other monumental structures of recent date.

Mr. Hardenbergh comes to Oakland to present sketches of the new $2,000,000 hotel, the Oakland, to be built by the Realty Syndicate on Harrison and Twenty-ninth streets. It was originally planned by J. C. Jacobson, associate architect.

They were met at the station by William G. Henshaw, Walter J. Matthews and Secretary MacLaren of the hotel company. Immediately upon arrival the party went for lunch to the Clubhouse of the Country Club, where Mr. Hardenbergh and Mr. Jacobson will remain during their two or three days visit to this city.

A THINKING MACHINE. Mr. Hardenbergh is a man of small proportions, spare, compact, positive, a veritable thinking machine, high-gear and of much apparent nervous endurance.

Mr. Jacobson, who has been associated with Mr. Hardenbergh for the past twenty-five years, is in some ways the antithesis of his senior partner, being a man of large build, calm, deliberate and easy-going.

HOTEL FEATURES. There is only one special idea that the architect—particularly the hotel architect—must keep in view, and that is to give the builder the most for his money. The main feature of a hotel is revenue, and yet the building must be monumental, attractive and enduring. It must be a compact of economy, comfort, convenience and luxury.

"These are the desiderata of the American spender. He wants the most for his money. He spends with a prodigality, but no one gets more for his dollar than the spendthrift, shrewd Yankee."

SMOKES AND PLANS. Mr. Hardenbergh speaks rapidly as if he were full of his subject. He is said to be one of the most versatile men in his profession. He can plan a skyscraper or a church as well as the smoke curl from his after-dinner cigar. It is said he has numerous large enterprises under way in various parts of the country. Among these are the new laboratory at Princeton University, a large hotel in Omaha and several private residences in New York city.

"THE OAKLAND." The new hotel for Oakland will be in modern French style, an adaptation from the French Renaissance. This is the prevailing style of the larger hotels of the East. It combines the style with the beautiful in the most practical way. American architecture is getting away from the old style, which is a ornamentation prevailed. In fact, it is only of comparatively recent date that American architecture has taken definite form.

As proof of Mr. Hardenbergh's ideas, stand these leading hotels of New York—the Manhattan and the Waldorf—the first of the modern hotels in Omaha and the spectacular. The other, the Waldorf, which first set the cosmopolitan standard of elegance and the sight of the luxury, set the standard for subsequent hotels patterned by the millionaires.

BEAVALS ATTITUDE. "It is unfortunate that you people of the west have such prejudice to the sky-scraper. It is only a question of time. They give a certain style and beauty to a street that cannot be obtained in lower buildings. But, of course, here there is no necessity for utilizing the space upwards. With us in New York, the ground

"We are no longer imitators, even though we do still continue to make use of the best of what has gone by. We are coming to have a typical American style of architecture—something that is a blend of Greek, Roman and French, modified to suit modern business conditions."

AUTO TRIP TO BYRON SPRINGS

Good Weather and Good Roads Make Week End Journeys a Pleasure.

BYRON SPRINGS, April 12.—Recent rains and California sunshine of the past few days have combined to place the roads in Alameda and Contra Costa counties in almost perfect condition, much to the joy of the automobilist. Already a number of machine parties have arrived at Byron Springs and all made the fifty-three-mile run from Oakland in excellent time over good roads.

Compliments are being extended to Dr. Mead, the affable manager of Byron Springs, by the motorists for the complete and commodious garage, which has been fitted up with wash-racks, repair kits, pits and other automobile wants. Aside from the homes for the automobile Dr. Mead has had installed a plant for outfitting machines, a supply of inner tubes, gasoline, oil and other necessities.

Telephonic communication with the springs can be had all along the route and one finds it very satisfactory to phone the management, either at the start or along the route of the number in the party and the probable time of arrival so that rooms and tables can be reserved. Dr. Mead also provides excellent lunches for the homeward trip.

With good weather assured together with first-class accommodations, which include the famous baths and drinking waters, week-end auto trips to Byron Springs are certain to prove a pleasure. Parties from the bay cities may approach the springs by one route and return by another, as is shown by the following table: Oakland to Hayward, 14 miles; Hayward to Dublin, 8 miles; Dublin to Livermore, 10 miles; Livermore to Altamont, 7 miles; Altamont to Mountain House, 5 miles; Mountain House to Byron Hot Springs, 8 miles; total, 53 miles.

Byron Hot Springs to Antioch, 17 miles; Antioch to Concord, 15 miles; Concord to Walnut Creek, 7 miles; Walnut Creek to Lafayette, 3 miles; Lafayette to Fish Ranch, 5 miles; Fish Ranch to Oakland, 10 miles; total, 63 miles.

Tell us how much Lard your grocer sells and we will tell you how much indigestion is in the neighborhood.

Lard is made from hog-fat and is bound to be greasy and indigestible—sometimes absolutely unhealthy. There isn't an ounce of hog-fat in Cottole. Its basis is just pure, refined Cotton seed oil, which is thoroughly digestible and healthful.

The stomach of the average American has been subjected to lard-soaked food for years simply because people have not known the dangers of the "lard habit." Cottole is so much superior to lard, both as to the palatability of the food it produces and its healthful qualities, that it will surely supplant lard for shortening and frying purposes wherever its virtues are known. Give your poor stomach a chance—divorce yourself from lard, and use Cottole.

Cottole is made by a cleanly, hygienic, sanitary process, which insures its purity. It is, moreover, healthful, because its chief ingredient is a healthful product. It will aid rather than retard digestion. The housewife who pays any attention to hygienic cooking will use Cottole in place of lard every time.

COTTOLENE was granted a GRAND PRIZE (highest possible award) over all other cooking fats at the recent Louisiana Purchase Exposition, and food cooked with COTTOLENE another GRAND PRIZE.

"Home Help" is a book of 300 choice recipes, edited by Mrs. Rorer, is yours for a 2 cent stamp, if you address The N. K. Fairbank Company, Chicago.

A NEW FEATURE—The patent air-tight top on this pail is for the purpose of keeping COTTOLENE clean, fresh and wholesome; it also prevents it from absorbing all disagreeable odors of the grocery, such as fish, oil, etc.

FRISCO SEALS WIN FOURTH GAME FROM THE BEAVERS

Ashley Is in Rare Form and He Allows the Portland Batters Only Two Hits in Nine Innings of Slow Game.

By T. P. MAGILLIGAN.

Those hard-boiled athletes from Portland came out on the bullpens end of a 4 to 1 score at the San Francisco ball yard yesterday afternoon, and had the Beas been inclined to do so they could have made this score even more lopsided.

Portland played like the Fuzzy Wuzzies, who are the champions of the West, and Stockton institutions where the monkey house league holds forth.

During the afternoon the Beavers had frozen eye-balls and could find the wizard Ashley for only two hits.

Graves, who is the manager of the Beas, after the game Manager McCredie had a brainstorm.

Yesterday was Ashley's first full game in the Coast League. He pitched part of a game in Oakland last Sunday.

ASHLEY IN GOOD FORM.

The youngster displayed mid-season form, and shot the spirograph over the plate with accuracy and speed.

He displayed an assortment of pitching assets that held the Beavers spell bound. He allowed the frozen athletes only two hits, walked only one man, and turned four.

Ashley has a nice free delivery, plenty of speed, good-wide curves, and he had the Beavers guessing, and guessing wrong, during the entire nine innings.

McCredie's young men certainly played an article of baseball that was far from creditable for men who claim salary for being ball-players.

They don't seem to have any glower and the fine points of the sport are certainly a closed book to them.

ROASTS FOR BEAVERS.

The bleachers and stands contributed to the mundane misery of the Portland players by referring to them as bushers, and other more truculent names, which would not look well in print.

Portland started off with a tally in the first inning, which proved their only run of the day. Moriarty's foals was back of this one tally.

Shinn laid an easy one down the Irishman's way and the Ted allowed it to get through his scissor-like legs.

Then Lovett sacrificed and Shinn took third on Casey's easy out. McCredie got busy and poled out a single, scoring Shinn.

The Beas didn't score until the fifth inning, when they interrupted over a trio of runs. Ashley started the ball a rolling with a ripping double to right center. Spencer sacrificed and Ashley came home on a fielder's choice by Moriarty. Moriarty singled through short. Staton fumbled, allowing Moriarty to get to third and Moriarty to second. Calif contributed a wild pitch and Moriarty scored. Still up in the air Calif walked Hildebrand. Irwin singled to right and Moriarty scored. Hildebrand was caught at the plate on a perfect throw from Lovett and the inning ended.

ROLLER BASEBALL.

In the seventh inning the Beas began the roller skating game, and although they made only one hit they scored three runs. Portland played a wild fielding game in this spasm.

Staton was the worst offender in the Portland line-up. He was responsible for three of the pigmies six errors, and his work helped the Beas to the game.

Portland plays the Beas at San Francisco for the rest of the week, and the Beas are bound to add to their lead in the pennant race. Moriarty and Irwin were the stars at the bat for San Francisco.

Lovett and McCredie were the only Beas to break into the hit column.

WILL O'BRIEN FIGHT IN LOS ANGELES?

TURF INTERESTING NOTES ABOUT RACING MATTERS GOSSIP

By LEE DEMIER.

BREEZY CHIT CHAT OF THE GAME

Our baseball team is certainly having a full and busy time of hard luck in balmy Los Angeles these days.

The Commuters are putting up a splendid game of baseball, albeit, a losing one.

Dame Fortune's stepdaughter seems to have perched on the banner of the Oakland team, but before the season grows much older there is every reason to believe that Oakland will have its share of the luck.

It is better to get the bad breaks now than later on. They don't count as heavily in the spring as they do in the fall when the team is winding up the pennant race. It is the finish that always tells, and the fans of Oakland are hopeful that Oakland will round the stretch turn for home in the lead or at least in a position where a spurt will put them there.

The fans in Oakland are pleased at the good game played by Oakland. Luck is a dual element, and we've learned to take the bright side of the disc before long.

John Gleason explains the absence of Barney Joy from the fold by declaring that the hectic weather which prevails in the city is not the best with which Barney came in too close juxtaposition froze the exposed plumbing in Joy's neck.

The fans have been stung in their desire to see Joy twirl. There is hope still, however, for Barney is due for one of the games this week.

At present the outlook for the children athletes from Portland certainly has a bluish look, but the season is young yet, and you never can tell.

Penny Henderson and Pat Donahue continue to remain loyal to Stockton and McCredie's offers, but they have not yet received the loyalty of the star battery to their Stockton team. McCredie has hopes in the power of the saying "not yet but soon," and he slips this awe inspiring incantation to the reporters, daring enough to ask Mac about the "hold out" kids.

The fans fall to enthuse over the Portland team. They declare that the Beas are too any-rabbits in McCredie's line up, and most of them are dead ones at that. The lions of the team refuse to come out of the hills.

In all the vast throng that attended last Sunday morning's game here, two Eastern bonnets, one covered with frozen cherries, and the other draped in choice posies flashed on the awe inspiring visions of the bird athletes. At first we were unable to discover the identity of the flowers under the brain covers, but later developments show us that the habitats under the bonnets were the Hammer sisters, chic little maidens and brave reporters.

Those Portland boys are the champion finger billiardists of the league. Any time nine young men can mix up six errors we have to hand it to them.

Although the centerfielder of the Portland team's name is Shinn he has not booted the ball as consistently or as frequently as some of his co-sufferers.

Lovett looks to be the only live rabbit picked up by McCredie in his still hunt for available players last winter.

Pat Newman is a fair sort of first baseman. He hits fairly well and guards the cushion in highly approved fashion.

Derrick continues to umpire research games. He has played like a grand organ and his decisions can be plainly heard in the hills back of the lot.

Next Tuesday the Oaklanders will open at home and don't forget to turn out. This means you. Big dollops before the game. Choo-choo wagons and other attractions.

Moriarty contributed all the errors to the error column of the Beas at Recreation Park yesterday afternoon.

Jack Bliss will join Van Haltrien's Greasers as soon as they get home. He is in fine shape and should help the team out considerably.

Nick Williams continues to be hors d'oeuvre as a result of that wad he received in Oakland last Monday. Murphy is playing in right field, while Wheeler is covering first base.

Orvie Overall, the big Visallan, pitched for Chicago against St. Louis in the opening game at Chicago yesterday and won.

Carlisle seems to be the goods. He touched Freddie Randolph for two hits at Los Angeles yesterday afternoon.

Brashear and Deimas of the Angels were each unkind enough to rap out two hits off our own little Randolph yesterday.

Haley has his eye on the ball and is playing a bang up game for the Commuters. The former St. Mary's College boy lapped out a brace of hits for the Commuters yesterday afternoon.

Dolmas pulled off a double play unassisted at Los Angeles yesterday afternoon. The name seems to be fraught with genius.

There was a riot at the Polo grounds in New York yesterday. The Giants are in mid season form, earlier than usual this year.

THE BLUE AND GOLD CLAIM NEW TITLE

Feeling to get on a match with the Mills College basketball team, the Varsity Five have disbanded for the season.

The blue and gold now claim the championship of the collegians, having been twice victorious in contests with the Stanford Five.

FINE YACHTS MAY MEET SHORTLY

The San Francisco Yacht club is out with a challenge directed at the Corinthian Yacht club. The San Francisco club wants to compete with the Corinthians in a race for the perpetual cup.

The Neva has been named as the San Francisco club's representative. The Neva is a twenty-five foot boat, and the fastest boat in the Corinthian class is the Discovery, and it is possible that she may be selected as the defender.

These boats met last September and the Corinthian scored an easy victory.

TURF INTERESTING NOTES ABOUT RACING MATTERS GOSSIP

By LEE DEMIER.

A featureless card, composed of large and ordinary fields, furnished the sport at Williams Park yesterday. The large crowd who journeyed to this popular pleasure spot in search of excitement in the racing line found more than they anticipated. Four players, as is the rule in such large and unwieldy fields, found it next to impossible to pick a winner, and the naga elected to carry off the purses performed disgracefully. Close finishes and long priced horses carried off the honors of the day, and the good-natured sporting public returned to the smiling bookies the bankrolls they so proudly carried away the day before.

Of the dozen maiden two-year-olds which lined up in the opening race, Tillaght was the one to earn brackets. Sam Hildebrand's gelding was quick to get in his stride and showed a clean pair of heels to his field all the way, although he had to be shaken up a bit at the end to beat out Wuerzberger. The latter was in a pocket and did not get clear sailing till the race was over. Irish Mike out-gamed the others.

Form players were given an awful jolt when Anoma, the 30 to 1 shot, got up under a fierce drive to grab the six furlong sprint by a head from Norwood Ohio. Finn's black mare was the medium of quite a play and at post time her price was 20 to 1, while Heatheart's powerful finish that won for the daughter of Pontiac, as the boy on Norwood Ohio grew over-confident and tossed the race off when he practically had it at his mercy. St. Denis ran a nice race from a bad beginning and fell heir to the show.

Favorites fared badly and the third one to be howled over was Bogum. Moment of this event turned up in Tokyo at 12 to 1, who, cleverly piloted by McBae gained an advantage over his field by sneaking in on the rail and won when the real racing began, but lasted long enough to beat out Duke of Orleans for second place. The latter came from the clouds in the last furlongs.

George P. McNear, who has been knocking at the door, had all the racing luck in the fourth race and just managed to stagger in from Instructor and Military Man. The latter was favorite, but was knocked out of it right after the start, and although he ran a game race, could never overcome the advantage his field gained on him in the long distance race. Hot's gelding was quoted at 15 to 1 and was given the best ride, winning easily at the end. Daniel C ran a cracking good race and beat out Ray for second position.

Gov. Davis furnished the surprise in the long distance race. Hot's gelding was quoted at 15 to 1 and was given the best ride, winning easily at the end. Daniel C ran a cracking good race and beat out Ray for second position.

GREGGAINS AND LEVY NOW PARTNERS IN FIGHT GAME

Frisco Promoters Join Hands and Will Endeavor to Pull Off Fight This Month.

BY EDDIE SMITH.

Judging from the way Morris Levy and Alex Greggains are hooking up together in an endeavor to bring off a twenty-round boxing contest this month it would seem that the promoter from the south side and the one from Hayes Valley had joined hands and will handle the coming contests that they get jointly.

Jim Coffroth was to receive this month's fight permit, but when the trouble with the Supervisors began he very gracefully withdrew his request and said that there would be no contest in Frisco this month. Greggains and Levy have taken the proposition up where Coffroth dropped it and are trying to arrange a twenty-round contest between Bob Ward and Al Kaufmann.

Ward has been quoted as saying that he would like to take a try at the professional game and as he is being managed by Philadelphia Jack O'Brien, who has had ample opportunity to study the ability of both men the match will not be made unless the Quaker thinks Ward has a chance. To my way of thinking Ward has a chance with any of the present-day heavies, except the few high-class men that are in the very front row, he has a very awkward way of boxing that makes it particularly hard for an opponent to land a solid punch on a vital place, at the same time he is always swinging his arms around trying to land the sleep-producer. He is exceptionally strong, has a very good punch and is far cleverer than was Tom Sharkey, when that individual made his first start in the professional ring. At Kaufmann would make a good try horse for the amateur as he has a good punch and is not of such class that it would be a one-sided affair if the youngster did not show as well as expected. The managers are also thinking of putting on three ten-round contests if the big fellows fail to agree.

The series of ten-round bouts between promising candidates for championship honors is very popular in Los Angeles, where McCarey has been holding them each month that he had any trouble in securing a big card, the idea would soon become popular here if instituted for in ten rounds the men are in action all the time and the spectators are in a constant thrill of excitement all during the contest; time is too precious for the men to stall much.

Reports from Philadelphia would indicate that Freddie Ward of Cripple Creek, Colo., in his first contest in the East put it all over Harry Baker, the California boy who had in his previous contests made such a hit with the Eastern sports. The early rounds of the contest belonged to Baker, who used his straight left with good effect, but Weeks, who is evidently an aggressive last, kept coming all the time and at the end of the third round, and the remaining three, had the native son hanging on to avoid the body punches he was sending home with great rapidity. The last round was a sorry one for Baker; Weeks had him in a bad way. In the fifth he had, with a left swing, closed his right eye and his nose and mouth were bleeding. All during this round the lad from the Rockies fought for the body and at the end of the round Baker who had perhaps saved a knockout by running away all the time was very weak and many of the papers said that if there was a decision to be given it must go to the Colorado boy.

Barney Van Buskirk, the Maryville fight promoter, has asked the writer to match Fred Landers and Jack Clifford for a twenty-round contest to take place at Maryville during the latter end of the month. Landers' manager, Leo Meyers, accepted the match last night, and said that he was willing to sign articles as soon as he could see and talk with his protegee. This will make the third time that this pair has been matched, both of the other matches falling through, owing to disagreements arising between the men as to the conditions under which they were to meet.

Fred Ward, the Vallejo scrapper, who has been making Oakland his home for some time, seems to be having a hard time in getting on with a man his weight. The last contests Ward had, was with Cyclone Thompson and a wrenched knee forced him to retire temporarily, the injury is now healed and he has been trying to get back into the game for some time. He was first matched with Jack Clifford at Sacramento, but the match fell through. The club then sent for Tim Callahan, who was at Reno and supposed to be very anxious for a match. Tim was brought from the mountain town to the Capital and every thing looked rosy until yesterday, he packed bag and baggage which did not amount to much, and left the town, leaving the club without a match. Ward has been promised a go this month and the club management is endeavoring to sign Tom Barry or Lew Pavell with him.

HENEY WOULD NOT GIVE "IMMUNE" DEGREE TO THEM

Los Angeles Men Who Wanted to Talk Changed Front Before the Grand Jury Yesterday.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—Two prominent Los Angeles officials declined outright yesterday to testify before the grand jury unless they were made "immune" against the use of their testimony later. The subject under consideration was the bribery in which A. K. Detweiler was implicated and indicted. Assistant District Attorney Henevy would not accept this offer and quickly dismissed them. The men were J. S. Torrance and J. H. Adams.

Torrance was one of the first directors of the corporation, and he was the chief figure in the movement of a franchise to the city. He followed its organization. Torrance admitted having brought $200,000 to San Francisco after the fire to secure the Home Telephone franchise from the Board of Supervisors.

PRESIDENT ADAMS.

Adams is President of the Adams-Phillips Company of Los Angeles. This company assisted in the underwriting of the Home Telephone Company's bonds. Adams was very close to the directors of the corporation, and is supposed to know of the action that is alleged to have been taken before Detweiler received the money with which he bribed the members of the Board of Supervisors.

Both Adams and Torrance were summoned from Los Angeles in March and appeared before the grand jury. They declared that they were willing to tell everything they knew without reservation and each was on the witness stand for nearly an hour.

Since that day, however, both men have undergone a change of mind.

CHANGED FRONT.

"But we understood you to say when you were before us last time that you were ready to tell all you know about the financial operations of the Home Telephone Company in securing its San Francisco franchise," was the question asked of Adams.

"We might have said that then," was the answer, "but since then we have decided to say nothing concerning the affair."

A. B. Cass, President of the Los Angeles Home Telephone Company and one of the promoters of the Home Telephone Company of San Francisco, is in this city waiting to appear before the grand jury.

The grand jury adjourned yesterday until this afternoon at 2 o'clock, when the Home Telephone Company investigation will be completed.

ROLLER MEN TO JOIN P. A. A.

A movement that means much to the popular sport of roller racing throughout the country has been inaugurated through the effort of D. J. Alberga, manager of the Idora Park skating rink, to place racing on roller skates under the protection of the Amateur Athletic Union of America, or, as would be the natural sequence in this case, under the guidance of that body's representative in the West, the Pacific Athletic Association.

The movement had its inception in a discussion over the question of measuring a mile in a skating rink for races to cover, and in conditions or efforts against time. Mr. Alberga insisted that, inasmuch as the question of measuring near to or far from the sides of the track meant such a difference in the distance traversed, a record established on a track where the mile was measured near the baseboard would be vastly different from one where the measurement was taken in the center of the track, or some distance away from the side, and therefore that in order that a record might mean the same thing one place as another, and that a man might know when he really held a championship, a recognized body should stipulate conditions for measurements and settle the question once and for all.

He therefore wrote recently to James E. Sullivan, President of the P. A. A., asking his aid in the matter. Mr. Sullivan at once referred the matter to Secretary Herbert Hauser of the P. A. A., and the latter has written to Mr. Alberga to arrange for a meeting when the question will be taken up and an effort made to establish a definite rule.

PEPPERYGOES EXPECTED HERE

While Jack O'Brien and Tommy Burns and Joe Gans and Battling Nelson are wrangling over the proposed return matches between the men and the San Francisco promoters are stalling over the coming permits for twenty-round fights the lovers of the four-round game are enjoying the sport in all its glory.

The Reliance Club will entertain the fans next Tuesday night at their gymnasium with as fine a list of events as has ever been pulled off in Oakland. The three main events are of such character that the spectators will be kept in one thrill of excitement from start to finish.

Jack Ward writes from Sacramento that he is in the best of health and that he will be in much better shape than he was at the last meeting between him and Jack Evans, who is to be his opponent in the coming contest.

Ward is boxing with his brother Fred every day, who is at the Capital City training in a contest to come off some time during the latter end of the month.

Evans is not in the least pleased with the idea of Ward hitting that he was afraid to put up a side bet and is trying to locate the confident Ward with hopes that he may convince him that he is wrong.

Jerry Fairbanks, who is daily working with Kid Webster at the Hayes Valley Club, brings the news that the Kid is in good shape and that he will be on hand to fight Loren Brown's wants. Brown is of an entirely different frame of mind, however, and was never so confident that he would be declared the winner as in this contest. Loren says that he has seen the Los Angeles story in action in all his contests since coming north and that he has a very good line on his ability. There must soon be a new champion in the 125 pound class and both of these boxers are in line for the title. The winner will probably meet Johnny Murphy for the championship. The bouts were placed on sale today and those who contemplate getting good seats should order as soon as possible.

MAY HOLD UP LOTS OF WORK

Finance Committee Must Hold Down Until After June 30 on Public Works.

One rule established by members of the new council is being rigidly enforced, that of meeting both in regular session and for committee work, at 8 o'clock sharp.

In the auditing and finance committee Chairman Pendleton said it would be necessary to hold up some of the work required until after June 30th. By transferring certain sums from unused funds, the city finances would be made to cover all actual needs of the city, but some curtailment in expenditures would be necessary.

At the next meeting a trial balance showing condition of funds will be submitted by the city auditor and this will be given each week.

An ordinance authorizing the board of public works to advertise for the construction extension of the Pleasant Valley avenue sewer, was passed.

A sum of $100 is appropriated from the sewer fund of the fiscal year 1907-1908 for this purpose. The sewer was for the purpose of extending the sewer line to the intersection of the street with the Vreeman street line. The committee recommended a passage of the ordinance.

BABY WASTED TO MERE SKELETON

In Torments a Year and a Half with Terrible Sores on Face and Body—Hands Tied to Stop Scratching and Tearing at Flesh—But

CURE BY CUTICURA COMPLETE AND SPEEDY

"My little son, when about a year and a half old, began to have sores on his face, and a physician treated him, but the sores grew worse. Then they began to come on his arms, then on other parts of his body, and then on his chest, and he was more than the others. I called another physician. Still he grew worse. At the end of about a year and a half of suffering he was so wasted that he could not lie in his bed at night to keep him from scratching the sores and tearing at the flesh. He got to be a mere skeleton, and was hardly able to walk. My aunt advised me to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. So great was her faith in it that she gave me a small piece of Cuticura Soap to try and a little Cuticura Ointment. I took it home without any faith, but to please her I tried it, and it seemed to dry up the sores a little. I sent to the drug store and got a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. Followed the directions, and at the end of about two months the sores were all well. He never had any more of any kind of skin trouble. I used only one cake of Soap and about three boxes of Ointment. Mrs. Egbert Sheldon, R. F. D. No. 1, Woodville, Conn., April 22, 1905."

"I had suffered with itching pimples for years. At last a friend told me to use Cuticura. I used only one cake of Soap and in three weeks my face was entirely cured. California Knights and Ladies
Conclude Annual Grand Lodge Session.

The grand lodge of California Knights and ladies closed its twentieth annual session in San Francisco at 5 p. m. yesterday. The session was uninteresting, except as to the reports concerning the condition of the San Francisco lodges, on account of the earthquake. All the members in the city suffered more or less, some losing everything they had, but the decrease in membership was only forty-nine.

The only assistance received from the supreme lodge, as shown by the reports of the grand officers, was in remitting three months' assessments. No direct relief was sent as had been done by almost all, if not all, the other fraternal societies.

The only change in the laws was the amending of the section referring to the election of officers. The section was changed so that the election might take place on the first day of the session instead of the second.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: Grand protector, Mrs. Charles Carroll O'Donnell, San Francisco; grand vice-president, J. A. Colquhoun, Oakland; grand secretary, E. W. Quinzio, San Francisco; grand treasurer, A. Gompertz, San Francisco; grand chaplain, Mrs. Louise Rieger, Alameda; grand guide, Mrs. M. E. McDonald, San Jose; grand guardian, Mrs. M. G. Perry, Vallejo.

MAN NARROWLY ESCAPES DEATH

Companion of Oakland Man Thrown From Horse Into Barbed-Wire.

REDDING, April 12.—J. A. Whitehead, president of the Pacific Power Company, had an experience with a barbed-wire fence that nearly cost him his life. As a result of his adventure he is now lying in a semi-unconscious state at the ranch of J. N. Farlow in the Battle Creek section under the care of two surgeons.

Mr. Whitehead, in company with W. T. Vahlberg, an Oakland business man, left Redding in a buggy for the Pacific Power Co.'s plant on Battle Creek. During the day they looked over the power site of the company. Both took horses and started on horseback for the head of Battle Creek, ten miles east of the power plant. Vahlberg stayed at George Annand's ranch.

On his return Whitehead left Farlow's about 8 o'clock at night. He was last seen by a couple of ranchers living between the two places and he was galloping at a rapid pace. Soon after the same ranchers heard a screaming and raving. Going out to the road they found Whitehead lying in the road alongside a barbed-wire fence. He was unconscious and raving and bleeding from numerous cuts and gashes. His horse was hobbling about also seriously cut and hurt.

SCORES LEAP FROM WINDOWS

Frightened Men, Women and Children Jump Out of Flaming House.

CLEVELAND, April 12.—Men, women and children jumped from third-story windows to escape death in a fire in a tenement house in Columbus Road early today.

Nine families were asleep upon the three floors of the building when the flames broke out. Finding escape cut off through the lower halls, a panic among the occupants of the upper floors followed and many leaped from the windows.

Several received injuries more or less serious. Firemen succeeded in rescuing a number of tenants with ladders. So far as known, no fatalities resulted. The property loss was small.

DEPARTMENT DRUG STORES

NO SUBSTITUTION AT OSGOODS'

In these days of strenuous competition there is much practicing of substitution, even in some stores of high standing. This is never practiced at Osgoods' Department Drug Stores.

Our clerks are required to give you exactly what you ask for; we're not after the last cent of profit. We're out to maintain the confidence we have built up with the public---and that's the best profit-bringer we know of.

We never substitute, and we always cut rates.

Our Foxy Cigar Competitors

A few days ago a cigar dealer declared that we did not do as we advertise; he said we were not selling the highest brands of 12½c cigars for 10c each.

So a little job was put up on us. Two strangers came to the store and asked successively for Palencias, Sanchez & Haya, Optimos, Sinceridads, Belmonts, etc., and tried to leave a quarter on the counter for two of each.

Without knowing anything of the game the clerk gave a nickel change and forced the purchasers to pick it up.

It proved to be the best advertisement we ever had, for now every cigar smoker in town is talking about it.
